

WORKING IN THE NUCLEAR FIELD:

Experience and Opportunities

A Career Event

Wednesday, October 30th, 2024

Centro Congressi "Le Benedettine"

Piazza S. Paolo a Ripa D'Arno, 16 – Pisa, Italy

The University of Pisa, within the CIRTEN Consortium, is organising a hybrid career event in the frame of the ENEN# project, offering to students and graduates from Italian Universities and abroad to meet in presence or online with representatives of Industries, Research Centres and other bodies involved in nuclear energy applications, in order to discuss experience and present opportunities for working in the nuclear field. In the morning, the event will host presentations about the experience of work in the nuclear field and in the afternoon "career speed dating sessions" with industries, research centres and other bodies are organised
